Why I am here

For many years the bear has been the mascot of our school. The bear, we believe, is a fitting symbol for our athletic teams and high school, since the bear is well known to be a determined and intelligent fighter. For this reason we have chosen the bear to be the theme of this, the thirteenth edition of the Elizabethan.

In this yearbook we have tried to present to you a true picture of actual school life as we see it. This includes classes, activities, athletics, and all those little incidentals that together make up school life. We find school life completely lacking the formality that appears in other places. Because of this we have tried to make this yearbook as informal as possible.

The 1947 Elizabethan staff here wishes to express its great appreciation to all students, members of the faculty, and friends of the school for the inestimable assistance which they have given the seniors in the preparation of this, their yearbook.

Whom the seniors honor with this dedication

We, the Class of 1947, with pride and sincerity, dedicate this 1947 Elizabethan to you, Mr. Norman E. Diehl.

As our class adviser, you have given us much of your valuable time. You have shown unending interest in our class and have helped to make everything we undertook a success.

It is impossible to show to you the full extent of our gratitude, but by this dedication we hope you may realize how much your guidance has meant to us.

A hard-working Elizabethan staff

Familiar ringings in the editor's ears: "Meeting tonight in room 20" . . . We heard that so often . . . Can't anyone think of anything? . . . But we already have too many pages! . . . Oh, I wish it were done! . . . I can't be there tonight . . . Now who wants this write-up? . . . We need two hundred words . . . I don't know that much about it . . . The printers want the copy this week . . . We take pictures today . . . It surely is raining . . . Will the sun ever come out? . . . Who has those pictures? . . . Boy, look at those divider pages! . . . I was up till two doing them, that is, two A. M. . . . Oh, please! . . . Won't somebody buy an ad? . . . When will that cover man come? . . . Is that a gray hair? . . . May I sell you a fine yearbook? . . . Only $2.25 . . . That's too much? . . . Wait until you see it . . . Best yet!

The school board provided the facilities . . .

We, the class of 1947, desire to express our deepest gratitude to the Board of Education of Elizabethtown. This fine group of public-minded men have assumed the difficult duties of safeguarding the welfare and providing for the education of Elizabethtown's younger citizens.

Very few of us have ever realized the responsibilities that rest upon them. Among their many tasks are the making of a budget that will provide for the school's many financial needs, the choosing of teachers that will best fill the needs of the school, the maintenance and repair of the school buildings, and the providing of courses that will make the best citizens of the younger generation.

It is for these reasons that we students are here showing our appreciation for their efforts and personal interest in the schools of Elizabethtown.

the principals planned . . .

Mr. T. H. Ebersole

To the Class of 1947:

I want to commend you for having completed your high school course. Your yearbook is a record of your extracurricular achievements. Your work in the classroom has also made its impression upon you as well as upon the school. My wish for you is that you will continue to grow and achieve as you meet the problems and responsibilities of life. May you always have a deep affection in your hearts for your high school as, I'm sure, it will have for you.

T. H. EBERSOLE
Supervising Principal

To the Class of 1947:

Although I have known you but one year, it has been a pleasure to work with you in this, your final chapter of your high school days. I extend to you my heartiest congratulations upon your graduation and sincerely wish you every success in the future.

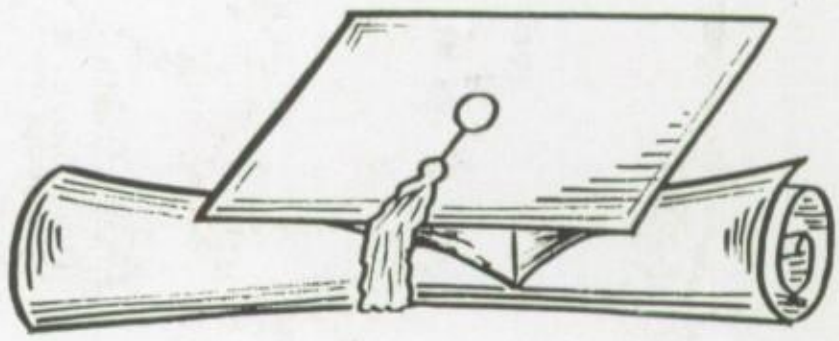
Seniors



Let me bear you into the past

FRESHMAN YEAR. It all began on a sunny day . . . September 6, 1943, to be exact . . . most numerous and most unimportant class, known as freshmen . . . our outstanding characteristic was a vivid shade of green . . . didn't take long to find out agricola meant same as farmer . . . Mr. Trimble, class adviser . . . girls quite chummy at Frosh parties . . . boys couldn't dance! . . . war in back of everyone's mind, so girls sold stamps and bonds . . . didn't stop girls from daydreaming of that certain tall, blue-eyed athletic star . . . varsity basketball champs . . . outstanding gym exhibition . . . our first! . . . memorable Home Room 3 assembly . . . finally last day of school arrived . . . Did we just imagine that the faculty had a few more gray hairs?

SOPHOMORE YEAR. This year the first day of school, September 5, 1944, didn't seem quite so sunny . . . especially to the faculty . . . as sophomores, we were more barbarous and warlike . . . our nature to be cruel, you see . . . allowed to join Y groups . . . fun, but those initiations! . . . this year we felt like big wheels . . . you see, it was our turn to elect class officers . . . excellent choices, too . . . president, Samuel Singer; vice-president, Kenneth Kniley; secretary, Jane Cunningham; treasurer, Jane Auch . . . also permitted to select courses . . . and what a time . . . sad! sad! . . . by the way, did history ever kayo us! . . . those poor, poor—teachers! !

JUNIOR YEAR. The fun really started on September 4, 1945 . . . umm! ! . . . there we were, ninety intelligent geniuses (? ?) . . . we elected as president, Samuel Singer; vice-president, Kenneth Kniley; secretary, Virginia Raffensperger; treasurer, Jane Cunningham . . . excellent and efficient class adviser, Mr. Diehl . . . class rings turned out to be baked instead of onyx . . . didn't phase us . . . reread contract and sent rings back . . . Red McCarthy, our orchestra for Junior-Senior Prom . . . gala decorations . . . found all over girls' lockers—Alan Ladd and Gregory Peck . . . new refreshment stand . . . gym exhibition practically rained out . . . new athletic field with band to go with it . . . junior play postponed on account of a certain small pack of mischief getting the mumps . . . Junior High basketball champs.

SENIOR YEAR. We entered E. H. S. for our last year on September 3, 1946 . . . of all pupils the seniors are oldest and wisest . . . so our title seniors described us perfectly . . . officers turned out to be: president, Samuel Singer; vice-president, Charles Goodling; secretary, Virginia Raffensperger; treasurer, Jane Cunningham . . . same capable class adviser, Mr. Diehl . . . excellent football and basketball teams . . . girls left feminine ranks —took up field hockey . . . Senior Class play a huge success . . . "Not singly, but together"—our watchword . . . empires have risen and fallen . . . wars have been declared and won . . . fads have swept the earth and died away . . . but the Class of '47 lives on.

CHARLES GOODLING, Vice-President; SAMUEL SINGER, President;
JANE CUNNINGHAM, Treasurer; VIRGINIA RAFFENSPERGER, Secretary.

The senior class officers had their administration headaches

Samuel Singer was our energetic president . . . he took charge of all our meetings . . . Charles Goodling was his capable assistant . . . Virginia Raffensperger efficiently kept the records . . . and that wasn't an easy job . . . Jane Cunningham managed our finances and kept us out of the red . . . together with Mr. Diehl, they planned the great moments of our class.

CLASS POEM

To thee, Alma Mater, we bid adieu
As we honor thee with highest praise,
Fondest memories we shall carry forth
Of our delightful high school days.

As we embark on the sea of life
Success is the thought we bear in mind,
Our aims are high, a goal to reach
For freedom and honor if fate be kind.

Our teachers we leave, and friends depart
The last lesson now is learned,
But a pause of memories we reclaim
After the final page is turned.

A rejoicing class now are we
That we've reached our destination,
Twelve long years we have awaited
This final day, our graduation.

Let me bear you into the future

Many schools publish an alumni bulletin, which keeps past students informed about their classmates, who so reluctantly left the portals of their old Alma Mater upon their graduation.

If Elizabethtown High School were to edit such a magazine on June 3, 1957, it would probably contain the following articles concerning the Class of 1947:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodling are traveling to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to witness the initial trial of his most recent invention, the amphibious motorcycle. Mr. Goodling is famed for his rocket motorcycle, made known to the public only a few years ago. Mrs. Goodling is the former Miss Elsie Westafer.

Rev. John Thompson gave an inspiring talk to the Hi-Y on Tuesday.

Mr. James Reider, better known as "Ug" Reider in Big League Baseball, has accepted a position with the Phillies.

The most surprising news item of the week is the fact that Miss Barbara Boggs has finally decided which college to enter after ten long years of debating. Her choice? ? ? ? — Elizabethtown College.

In collaboration with Joseph Kauffman and Charlene Sweigart, Paul Hoffman recently published a book, entitled, "Skill in Bagging School." It is dedicated to all high school students having more than three days illegal absence.

The Board of Trustees of Elizabethtown's new hospital has appointed Miss Virginia Raffensperger as superintendent of nurses and Miss Jane Auch as dietician. Other nurses added to the staff are: Miss Nancy Wright, Miss Hanne Lore Teufel, Miss Emma Lou Koser, and Miss Lois Hilsher.

Miss Joy Davis, owner of the Vogue Beauty Salon, is suing Mr. Jack Ney, plumber by trade, for flooding her salon. This mishap occurred when Mr. Ney broke a water pipe while doing repair work.

Mr. Richard Miller, who starred in several Broadway hits, has accepted an offer from Hollywood. His first picture will be "Forever Mamie" from the book of the same name by Mr. Jack Chapman.

Phil Spitalny and his All-Girl Orchestra, featuring "Dorothy (Miss Dorothy Rutherford) and her Magic Violin," will appear at the Forum on Friday night. Miss Esther Frey, renowned opera star, will be guest soloist.

Miss Peggy Eberly's quiz show, "Triple or Nothing," has been elected the most popular radio program of the year.

Miss Doris Clauss, owner of many blue ribbon horses, again walked away with several first prizes at the Quentin Horse Show.

Mr. John Gainer and Mr. Roland Weaver, because of their great love for Navy life, have decided to re-enlist.

Mr. Leroy Rutt is attending the National Farmers' Convention at Denver, Colorado, this summer.

For the fifth consecutive year, Miss Nancy Walters has won the annual Gum Cracking Contest. She highly recommends "Blow-Bubble" gum.

Miss Louise Bricker has accepted a secretarial position with Spickler's Dairy.

On Saturday, Mr. Jay Walmer is planning to have the grand opening of his new and improved food store. He also has a new branch in Mt. Joy, which is managed by relatives.

Contrary to all horoscopic predictions in the sign of Etonius, everyone has proved successful and is doing his little bit in this world of rockets and atoms.

The seniors say it with music

Moderato

Dorothy M. Rutherford

The Time has come to Bid A-deiu to Teachers Friends and Class Mates too
Our school days have so swift-l y fled on lifes highway we now must tread

Farewell to thee dear E. H. S. we'll honor thee and sing thy praise
For guiding light thru all our days to thee farewell dear E. H. S.

Strive on O'class of forty-seven to conquer lifes unchartered maze
With wisdom gained at E. H. S. we'll proudly head life's long highway

The junior thespians showed great promise in 'almost summer' . . .

Paul Jones,
who goes on a cram session ..... George Cresswell
Mrs. Jones, his mother ..... Jane Auch
Mr. Jones, his father ..... Kenneth Kniley
Junior, his kid brother ..... David Myers
Mary, his sister ..... Peggy Lou Risser
Jack, Mary's boy friend ..... Richard Seaman
Jane, Paul's girl friend ..... Jane Cunningham
Mr. Smudgely, principal ..... Jack Chapman
Anna, the maid ..... Pearl Koser
Lelah, in somebody's past ..... Helen Hein

Before the footlights: Principal character, Paul Jones . . . excellent crammer . . . flashlight found with exams in office . . . wrecks principal's car . . . stern father . . . irritating brother . . . black coffee—favorite dessert . . . series of humorous events finally clears up all difficulties.

Backstage: Virginia Raffensperger and Hanne Teufel handled business matters . . . stage props by eleventh grade shop class . . . play was sabotaged by mumps, day before performance . . . final production dates: April 11 and 12 . . . what hectic practices! . . . excellent coaching by Miss Mengel . . . Class President Sam Singer made his bow as a public speaker.

and the senior play proved that they knew the ropes

Jack Gay	George Cresswell
Stella Gay	Pearl Koser
William Nagg	Richard Miller
Sally Nagg	Joy Davis
Arabella Nagg	Jane Auch
Noah Nagg	Jay Walmer
Ima Nagg	Helen Hein
Dolly White	Erma Snyder
"Doc" Knott	Richard Seaman
Lotta Sayless	Peggy Eberly
Herman Trackem	Samuel Singer

"My Wife's Family" . . . Jay Walmer was a perfect henpecked husband . . . with Jane Auch as his domineering wife . . . a newcomer to the class, Richard Miller, put on a finished performance . . . action took place in the living room of Jack Gay's (George Cresswell) summer home . . . the appearance of his mother-in-law caused great confusion . . . but all ended well.

Full house both nights, January 16 and 17 . . . much credit for the success of the play goes to Mr. Seiders, coach . . . curtain calls, too, for business managers, stage crew, make-up artists, and ushers.

The seniors made their last will . . .

We, the class of 1947, in ninety-five individual and distinct parts, being of good judgment, in full possession of a crammed mind and almost superhuman understanding, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, making void all former wills by us at any time heretofore made, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour. We hereby make the following bequests:

To the faculty, we leave a supply of color restorer for the grey hair we have caused them. We hope future classes will be easier on their endurance.

To selected members of the remaining classes, we bequeath the following:

To Norma Landis, Jane Auch wills her bicycle, her only mode of transportation.

Nancy Bechtel wills her dark hair to Bette Hipple.

Sara Jane Breneman wills her aeronautical ambition to John Groff.

Emma Crawford leaves her height to Grace Miller.

We, the class of '47, will Peggy Lou Risser's boy friends to Reba Seiders.

Jane Cunningham wills her gavel to the next Tri-Hi-Y president.

Joy Davis wills her bowleggedness to Mary Matoney.

We will the combined attention of Peggy Eberly and Doris Clauss in French class to Joan Corley and Nancy Basehore.

Esther Frey wills her moodiness to Gloria Gainer.

Amos Good wills his short haircut to John "Foo" Martin.

Ruth Black wills her A's to Marion Black.

Hilda Enck and Claudia Espenshade will their friendship to Fern Horner and Esther Keener.

Betty Cox and Betty Kaylor will their friendship to Nancy Smuck and Gloria Gainer.

We, in behalf of the teachers, will Richard Musser's funny books to the Boy Scouts.

Willis Heisey wills his ability to keep going steady to Gerald Roland.

Helen Hess wills a certain senior boy's picture to Joan Chapman.

Wilma Hess wills her daily bus rides to Geraldine Hummer.

Ina Hippensteel leaves her lonely heart to the junior class.

Ken Kniley and Jack Ney will their chemistry ability to Russ Martin and Pee Wee Morris.

Eugene Kipp wills his knowledge to Bob Bodman.

Pearl Koser wills her interest in Patton to Jane Lighthiser.

Emma Lou Koser sorrowfully leaves her beloved French book to a more ambitious student.

Patricia Landis leaves her two-wheeler to Miss Dulebohn.

We, the Senior Class, will the tactics we have learned in getting to our lockers to next year's football team.

Peggy Moose wills her artistic ability to anyone in the Junior class who finds art difficult.

Dick Miller and Edgar Seip will their penny-matching ability to Gerald Roland and Joe Stotz.

Kathryn Nissley wills her blonde hair to Eleanor Longenecker.

Jim Reider wills Gil Shirk his faithful Chevie so he can roam the northeast woods.

Dorothy Rutherford wills her gleaming white saddles to Marian Black.

Doris Rutt and Faye Young will their one-hook locker to whoever is unlucky enough to get it.

Marjorie Schuldt wills her silliness to Joan Corley.

bequeathing memories and traditions to posterity

Richard Seaman wills Joe Stotz and Nancy Smuck the dark corner at his locker.

Helen Shearer wills her perfect attendance to Dorcas Dunnick.

Marie Sipel wills her gum-cracking ability to Mabel Shaak.

Richard Sipel wills his love for Bainbridge to Donald Loser.

Erma Snyder wills her office messenger work to whoever is lucky enough to get it.

Charlene Sweigart wills her blonde hair to Arlene Keller.

Hanne Lore Teufel wills her ability in algebra class to Nancy Basehore.

John Thompson wills his ability in French to Gene Myers.

Jay Walmer leaves his sixty-one rolls of exposed film to Donald Hess.

Charles Charleston wills his right end position in football to Raymond Harder.

Louise Bricker wills her love for early morning chorus rehearsals to Nancy Wagner.

Nancy Walters wills her love for sports to Skip Yurkovic.

Rita Weiss wills her shorthand ability to Mildred Boll.

Lois Wert wills her shyness to Mabel Shaak.

We bequeath to Elsie Westafer, Juliet, and Charles Goodling, Romeo, jointly, thirty-three cents to buy them a license, kind not stipulated.

Virginia Williams wills her slimness to Rosie Troutman.

Jennie Wyliga leaves her will power to Joe Crevar.

Leon Gassert leaves his trademark on the spattered ceiling of the chemistry lab.

We leave to the oncoming classes the distinctive whistle of Samuel Singer, echoing down the halls.

Section 12-3 leaves its dilapidated typewriter ribbons to 11-3.

The 1947 Yearbook Staff leaves all its chewed-up pencils and headaches to the Staff of '48.

Nancy Wright wills the permanent "goose egg" on her shin to the person on the hockey team who plays center forward against that "chocolate drop" from Mt. Joy.

Helen Hein and Virginia Raffensperger will their one and only trip to Holtzman's to anyone misguided enough to think it is worth the consequences.

George Cresswell wills the Eleventh Street beach at Ocean City to Jake Williams.

To every boy graduate we devise the sweetest girl in seven states.

To every girl graduate we devise the handsomest man this side of Honolulu.

With Mr. Barley, we leave our deepest apologies for making his floors so dirty.

We all leave our exam scares to posterity.

We will and devise all our stormy sessions with Mr. Clemens, clever schemes to raise money that failed, shattered test tubes, tardy marks, unprepared assignments, burnt messes, athletic defeats and oratorical fizzles, whatsoever assembled by us in Elizabethtown, unto the heathen of the Tongo Islands, and their lawful heirs forever.

In witness whereof we have hereunto put our signature and the seal of the Class of 1947, entreating and appointing our mascot, The Bear, to be overseer hereof, on this Third Day of June in the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Forty-seven, commending our ambitious selves into the hands of Life, our ultimate destiny, hoping and assuredly believing, through the stresses and struggles thereof, to add unto ourselves success, happiness, and fame everlasting.

Six Straight Grid Wins For E-towners

Countians Rout Highspire, 45 to 0 While 1,500 Brave Rain; Catholic-Lititz Game Is Postponed Until Monday Night

by BARBARA MILLER

ELIZABETHTOWN High School reigned supreme today as undefeated champion of the county high school football teams, just as it stole the spotlight last night in defeating Highspire 45 to 0 for its sixth win of the season.

The fans, an all-important part of any ball game, turned out 1,500 strong, despite the steady rain which fell throughout the contest. At Catholic High School, the game against Lititz was postponed until Monday night because of ground conditions, leaving the E-towners in the unusual situation of playing the only game last night.

of 175 points in six games—an average of more than 29 points per game, compared to their opponents' 33 total or five-and-one-half point average. Only Manheim Township has scored twice on the locals, who have taken their last two games by holding their rivals scoreless.

Their gridiron record was outstanding

This year Elizabethtown High School set a new precedent for Lancaster County in that the football team was conditioned at Camp Thompson in the Pocono Mountains. This undertaking was financed by benefit sports activities and generous donations of the townspeople. The boys, under the direction of Coaches Windish and Eppler, profited greatly by the training acquired during the ten days spent at camp. When pre-season training at home began, the boys were ready to meet their first opponent.

The most successful football season in E-town high school history got off to a flying start by winning over West York 15–7 on September 6. The game was never in doubt as our boys had complete mastery of the field.

The following week Palmyra journeyed to E-town and was soundly trounced 39–7, with each Bear back scoring at least once.

Excitement ran high on September 21, as the Blue and White met Columbia on our opponent's field. Coming from behind a 6-point deficit, the Bears racked up 4 touchdowns to beat Columbia 24–6 for the first time since 1939.

Manheim Township, E-town's fourth consecutive Conference of Roses opponent, was next on the schedule, and in one of the most thrilling battles witnessed on the new field, held our Bears to a one-point win, 14–13. Sterling line plays and the hard running of the E-town backs were the deciding factors.

The Blue and White stocked up their fifth straight win the following Friday, downing what later proved to be a good Duncannon team, 38–0.

The next week, playing in the rain, our boys proved they could handle the "T," come what may, by winning over Highspire, 45–0. This was the sixth straight win.

October 19 proved to be our unlucky day. In the deciding battle for the championship of the Conference of Roses, Ephrata blanked our Bears 18–0. This proved to be our only league loss of the year.

The following Friday the Bears came out victorious over Biglerville to the tune of 74–0. This team had beaten us three successive years before.

On November 2, we traveled to Middletown and came home down, but not out, the score being 64–13. The score was 14–13 at the end of the second quarter, but when the huge Middletown team took the lead, they started to roll.

In the final game of the season we took Patton Trade by the largest score in the long series between the two schools. Taking complete mastery of the game, the Bears led 33–0 at half-time and ended 53–0.

During the season an impressive total of 316 points were scored against our opponents' 115, to lead this part of the state. This total was distributed among five men: Yurkovic, 112; Kniley, 63; Goodling (seven games), 61; Reider, 51; Shirk, 24. Four of these were in the first ten of the county's high scorers.

Our line was particularly outstanding, paced by Seniors Reider, Heisey, Gassert, Ney, Charleston, and Kauffman.

The backfield composed of Seniors Goodling, Yurkovic, Kniley, Bishop, and Ebersole equalized the sterling play of the line to form an exceptionally well-balanced team.

Teamwork was superb and in using the "T" formation for the first time in our school history, much credit must be given to Coaches John Windish and Alton Eppler, who did such a magnificent job both at Camp Thompson and at home.

All the games were played at night before capacity crowds. The Bears played before approximately 20,000 people during the season, this testifying to the staunch support given the team.

Dick Dixon, competent cook for the boys at Camp Thompson, promised the team that when they had won six games, he would entertain them at a banquet. And so the week before the final fray with Patton, the players, together with friends and school officials, were Dick's guests at Aunt Sally's Kitchen.

After the Patton-E-town game, the members of both squads attended the annual football banquet sponsored by Dr. T. M. Thompson. This year the banquet was held in the high school gymnasium for over two hundred persons attending the affair. This annual banquet is always eagerly anticipated by both the Patton and E-town teams.

as they threatened to be league champs

For the first time in the history of Elizabethtown basketball the school was represented in the P.I.A.A. state playoffs. By playing Muhlenburg Township at Lebanon, our '47 team established a precedent. Although we lost 46–33, the score was no indication of the game, for in the first six minutes of the fourth quarter we had worn down a 13-point defeat (33–20) to a mere 36–32, mainly by hard fighting and Junie Goodling's 17 points.

We led up to this game by winning 12 and losing 6. Of these, 9 wins and 3 losses were league games. The Blue and White beat every team in Lancaster County, Section I, at least once and received losses from East Donegal, East Hempfield, and Marietta. This record gave us second place in the Section and entitled us to a berth in the Class A playoffs.

Mention must be made of the East Hempfield game at home. This encounter was one of the sports thrillers of the year. With only one second to go, Gil Shirk sank a long shot to win the game 32–31, and hand East Hempfield their only league loss of the year.

Outstanding performers beside those already mentioned were Center Jim Reider, Forwards Joe Kauffman, Pete Hoffman, and Amos Good, and Guards Jack Ney, Ken Kniley, and John Ebersole. All of the boys played to the utmost of their ability and each contributed highly to a successful season.

Due to the large attendance at our games, all but two of them were played in the spacious Elizabethtown College gymnasium. This additional seating space provided room for the team's loyal followers.

Elizabethtown's Homecoming Celebration, held August 17, 1946, was a memorable occasion. By printing these pictures of the celebration the Yearbook Staff hopes to further instil the greatness of this day into the memories of everyone.

Welcome home, fellas

The candid cameras clicked . . .

Recess time for the Class of '57!

Warden and his convicts!

The pause that refreshes!

Girl-shy, Roland!?!

Who done it?

Put a dime in it!
(Inflation, remember?)

Boom!

the students watched the birdie . . .

3:45 at last!

Future Phys. Ed. Teacher

Fill 'er up! !

If looks could kill . . .

Our sidewalk cafeteria!

He went thatta way!

Love in bloom!

as photographers snapped pictures . . .

Pete's not copying—
just comparing.

Now everybody be careful,
this is dangerous.

A stitch in time.

Eager beavers!

A student Mr. Goodhart can be proud of.

Wrecking crew.

Speed demons!

Science Club.

I just can't find the liver!

Now, this little dot is Elizabethtown.

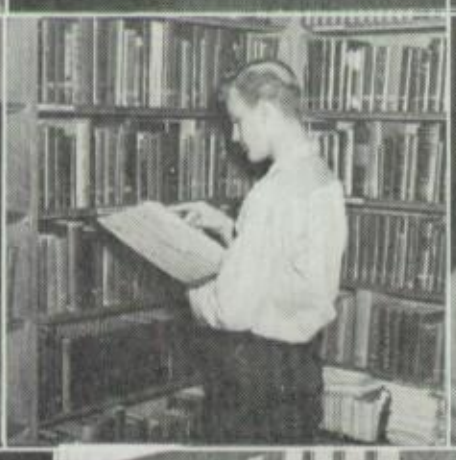
Aye, a true Scotchman.

Have enough credits, Ruthie?

The competent office girls.



Seeing is believing.

Don't tell me there's a fine!

The tranquility of passing classes.

Open wide!

B-E-A-T, Beat Patton!

of our life at E. H. S.

The 12-3 gang.

The wolf pack.

Silly seniors.

They just wouldn't look at the birdie!

Straining their eyes!

Coach, did you see this?

Bloody murder!

Could that be Betty?

Constant companions.

Laugh! I thought I'd die!

Keep your shirt on, Baker!

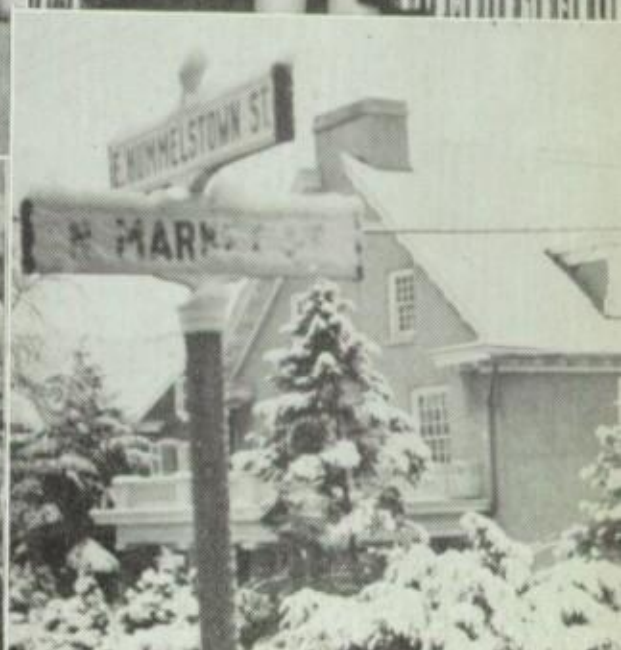
Our mascot.

Allegra and her marimba.

It must be here some place!

A sample of those handsome senior boys!

They say George Washington slept here!



SEPTEMBER

4 We finally became "dignified" seniors.

6 We defeated West York and started building up.

9 Notice in morning bulletin: Keep off new shrubbery.

10 Notice in morning bulletin: New shrubbery has again been ordered.

13 Palmyra thought they could beat us. Ha!

20 We downed Columbia, but was Jack Ney really hurt?

24 Several seniors spent a pleasant afternoon at Holtzman's.

25 Same seniors in office.

27 Manheim Township scared us, but we beat 'em.

30 Tri-Hi-Y initiations showed us some remarkable new fashions.

OCTOBER

4 Duncannon didn't seem to appreciate our fast backfield.

11 The fellows showed Highspire how to play football in the mud.

15 We got out of school to see the State Police Dog Show.

18 We came back from Ephrata, down but not out.

22 Mr. Neefe, mental wizard, entertained us.

24 Two-day vacation began for students, while the teachers went to school. (Institute, that was.)

25 We made a high scoring record at Biglerville's expense.

29 Halloween Party for the Senior High, sponsored by the Hi-Y.

31 Jr. Hi-Y Halloween Party.

NOVEMBER

1 Middletown reversed the usual score.

3 Weather: cooler.

7 We saw pictures of the Welcome Home Parade.

8 Patton saw our high-scoring team put a fine end to our season.

11 A combined Armistice Day assembly.

12 Hockey party.

13 Miss Brandt frightened the basses by beating them with her right hand.

14 Dr. Thompson gave his annual football banquet. Food (and silverware) consumed in large amounts.

14 Peggy Eberly eats barium chloride.

18 An Algebra test — another gray hair.

21 Rotary Air Age speaker. Early dismissal.

26 Tri-Hi-Y dance in gym.

27 Thanksgiving vacation gave us a chance to rest our weary minds and fill our stomachs.

DECEMBER

2 Life's photographer visited our school.

2 Science Talent Search Examination completely bewildered five seniors.

9 A faculty meeting which meant one less class for us.

10 Notice in bulletin this morning: "No chewing gum."

12 Just the same old grind, but we still couldn't find Kilroy.

13 Friday the 13th brought bad luck to Quarryville.

19 The Christmas Choral Program: one torn curtain.

20 East Hempfield may have had a good team but ours was better.

JANUARY

2 We came back to school, many of us wearing our Xmas gifts. Juniors pleased with class rings.

16–17 Characteristically, the seniors produced a fine play.

20 The aroma of H_2S filled the corridors.

21 The girls were permitted to have noon-hour basketball games.

24 Trig. started for a few brave seniors.

29 "Open the door Richard!"

FEBRUARY

3 Seniors picked their graduation announcements.

5 We shivered through the chest X-Rays.

6 Rotary speaker.

6 The explosion frightened the chemistry class.

14 Pepsi-Cola Scholarship Test.

13–14–15 Lions Club minstrel show.

19 1 A. M. We finished the yearbook.
2 P. M. We rushed to the printers.

20 Weather forecast: B-r-r-r-r!

21 Thursday's snow gave us an unexpected vacation.

27–28 The music department presented an excellent Spring Concert.

MARCH

7 Playoff game with Muhlenburg Township at Lebanon.

8 The students took advantage of their chance to bring outside dates to the Student-Parent Dance.

13 Basketball game for the benefit of the football camp.

27–28 The Junior Play, "Brother Goose," was one of the finest.

31 First baseball game, with Middletown.

APRIL

1 April Fool's Day.

4–8 Easter Vacation.

25 Faculty and students succumb to spring fever.

25 The Fashion Show was original.

MAY

1 The F. H. A. gave a breakfast at 7 a. m. for the faculty.

1 Teachers, not students, slept through classes today.

8 Mother-Daughter banquet was sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y.

9 The Juniors gave the annual Prom for the Seniors.

15 The Grade School presented their musicale.

19 We started to worry about our finals. Wrinkled brows, midnight oil, the beginning of the end.

JUNE

2 The Seniors presented their last program.

3 Commencement.

IT'S A NEW FREEDOM GAS KITCHEN

No, indeed! This picture is not a dream. It's real. It's one of our New Freedom GAS Kitchens, planned to free you from wasted energy, from fatigue, from dirt and heat . . . the kind of a freedom kitchen you'll want in your postwar dream home.

Beautiful . . . modern . . . cool . . . clean . . . care-free and trouble-free. These are the things you dreamed about—and GAS brings them to reality for you.

In your New Freedom GAS Kitchen, you'll have fast, automatic cooking with a modern gas range, literally blanketed with thick insulation . . . and, of course, a silent trouble-free gas refrigerator, and just oodles of hot water whenever you want it.

GAS has always led the way in Kitchen Freedom and Convenience . . . that's why nearly everyone in our community cooks with GAS. So, it's only natural that GAS will continue to be the preferred fuel for modern postwar kitchens.

Look to GAS to lead the Parade in Kitchen beauty . . . as it already leads the Parade in economy, cleanliness, speed and dependability, with modern Ranges, Refrigerators, Automatic Water Heaters, Home Heating and year 'round Air Conditioning.
